Our Policy
The purpose of this policy is to provide diversity and equality to all in employment, irrespective of their gender, age, racial origin, disability, religion, culture, sexual preference, language, political affiliation, marital status or parental responsibility. We oppose all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination.

All employees, whether part time, full time or temporary, will be treated fairly and equally.

Selection for employment, promotion, training or any other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability.

All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of the workforce will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.

Our commitment:

- Every employee is entitled to a working environment which promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.
- The commitment to diversity and equality in the workplace is good management practice and makes sound business sense.
- Breaches of our diversity and equality policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings.
- This policy is fully supported by senior management.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.
- This policy will be implemented within the framework of the relevant legislation, which includes (but not limited to):
  - Fair Work Australia Act 2009
  - Affirmative Action Act 1986
  - Anti-Discrimination Act 1991
  - Workplace Relations Act 1996
  - Industrial Relations Act 1999
